HEATHCO® SELECTS BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY AS CORPORATE HEADQUARTERS LOCATION

Bowling Green, KY – March 13, 2008 – HeathCo Corporation announces its decision to establish a new corporate headquarters location in Bowling Green, Kentucky, creating over 15 new jobs. Offering a broad selection of specialty electrical products under the Heath Zenith® brand, HeathCo will utilize a new 22,000 square-foot facility, located at the Western Kentucky University Center for Research and Development (ICC), to continue to drive all facets of the business. Distribution activities remain in Manchester, Tennessee and Toronto, Canada.

HeathCo's future state-of-the-art facility will house the sales, marketing, customer service and technical support departments with additional space for engineering, finance, human resources and information technology groups. As a testament to HeathCo's dedication to new product development, more than 2,300 square feet of the facility has been designated for product research and development and more than 500 square feet for a certified UL lab.

"This new location within the research center and in proximity to Western Kentucky's campus, perfectly positions HeathCo to continue to grow through product innovation and places us in a fast-paced, innovative environment," stated Keith Springs, president of HeathCo.

The presence of this corporation on the Western Kentucky University campus also yields many benefits to both the students and community.

"Being on campus gives us a connection to the students and, in conjunction with the administration, a chance to create opportunities for the brightest students to stay here in Bowling Green and jumpstart their careers," Springs added.

HeathCo, a Duchossois Industries Inc. portfolio company headquartered in Bowling Green, Kentucky, offers a broad selection of specialty electrical products such as motion-activated lighting, door chimes, and wireless lighting controls sold in over 10,000 retail outlets worldwide including home centers, hardware stores, wholesale clubs and mass merchants.

Duchossois Industries, Inc. (DII) is a privately-held diversified operating company headquartered in Elmhurst, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago, with interests in access control, advanced control and automation, venture capital, and gaming.
